Business Summary

A true jewel of a business! If you are a self starter and a person who works hard but also works smart, and at the same time is completely honest and personable with customers, this is a fine business opportunity to make a solid upper middle class living. This is a profitable well functioning operation. Some knowledge of long haul trucking or freight forwarding would be an asset but not essential. The business is operated by the owner himself, who owns the trucks, but has faithful drivers under sub contract. Loads are mainly international between Canada and the USA and the company has all required permits. There is a wide client base of satisfied customers and the present owner is prepared to stay on with the new owner for a month or two to assure a smooth transition. The owner cares deeply that the business he built up over years will continue forward successfully, as he moves on to a new business venture in a different field. Some seller financing can be considered for qualified buyers. Interested persons please contact Michael Douglas Mac Intyre at 514 694 0554 ext 6.
